Your State Member of Parliament

How I Can Help You

Dear Constituents

As your local member in the New South Wales Parliament it is my pleasure to be able to serve you and our community.

If you ever have a problem, which you feel I could help you solve, please do not hesitate to call. I will do my best to help you.

When I am absent from my office on parliamentary or electorate business, you can direct any enquiries to my staff who are always happy to help and who are in touch with me at all times.

Yours sincerely

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Brad Hazzard".

Brad Hazzard
State MP for Wakehurst

How I Can Help You

As your local State Member of Parliament I can:

- Represent you in Parliament.
- Take your problem directly to the appropriate Minister or Department to get a response.
- Put you in touch with a service that can help you.
- Advise you of your rights and further action that you can take.
- Argue for more resources for your group or community.
- Work with you to make democracy work for us all.

The NSW Parliament

The Parliament of New South Wales is democratically elected to represent you and your community.

It is particularly responsible for the provision of services in:

- Education
- Law & Order
- Natural Resources
- Roads
- Science and Medical Research
- Health
- Small Business
- Fair Trading
- Regional Development
- Sport and Recreation
- Conservation and the Environment
- Industrial Relations
- Community Services and Housing
- Energy and Water

Brad is a life long resident of the Northern Beaches. He attended Manly West Public School and Manly High.

He graduated from Macquarie University as a science teacher. He later graduated in Law from UNSW and gained a Masters in Law from Sydney University.

After practising as a solicitor in Manly he entered Parliament in 1991 and was re-elected in 1995, 1999, 2003 and 2007.

Brad is married and has two sons. Both attended local schools. One is a keen sportsman and the other is an actor.

In addition to representing Wakehurst residents, Brad currently serves as a Shadow Minister and has held over 17 portfolios as a Shadow Minister in the State Coalition (Liberal/National).

He is passionate about the Northern Beaches and committed to assisting residents who have difficulties dealing with government departments or who need assistance in other ways.
